

The Commercial Account Program offers convenience, cost-savings and helpful service to our commercial customers.

Everyday Discounts¹ Based on Purchase Volume

Accounts with annual volume up to $2,500 earn a 5% discount. Accounts with annual volume over $2,500 earn a 10% discount. Credit accounts qualify for discounts if all payments are made within 30 days of statement mailing.²

Everyday Discounts on Ace Services

Standard 10% discounts on key cutting services (including chip keys), lock servicing, blade sharpening, glass and acrylic cutting, and screen repair.

Cost-Plus Bulk Pricing on Frequently Purchased Commodities

Businesses need a variety of items on a recurring basis. Items such as light bulbs, door lock sets, chip keys, cleaning products, etc. can be priced in bulk. Speak to your commercial account manager or a store manager or supervisor if you wish to add items to cost-plus pricing for your business.

Authorized List of Purchasers

Our point-of-sale system will ensure that only your authorized employees can use your account. If purchase order numbers are required, these can be made mandatory at check-out.

Guaranteed In-Stock Position on Important Items

We will guarantee that items important to your business are in-stock when you need them. Speak to your commercial account manager or a store manager or supervisor about your volume requirements and we establish in-stock minimums to meet your needs.

Notes:

1. Power tools, power equipment and small electrical appliances are excluded from everyday discount program. Bulk discounts may still apply. Purchase volume is evaluated annually each January. Accounts with at least 6 months of purchase history are given discounts based on annualized purchase estimate. Ace Rewards members do not earn rewards for discounted commercial account purchases.
2. Charge account payments must be received by statement due dates. Discounts will be reinstated if late payment is received within 60 days of the statement due date.
3. Tax exempt purchases require appropriate documentation be on-file with our business office. See Commercial Account Application for details.
4. Monthly statements are mailed automatically for all credit accounts and upon request for any account.
5. Minimum purchases may apply to free delivery.
